Art Unit: 1754

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1,9,10,11,17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, "selected from the group which consists of" is improper Markush language which renders the claim indefinite. It appears that – selected from the group consisting of – was intended. The Markush grouping must contain only one word "and" in the grouping.

In claims 9,10, "viz." is indefinite as to what this is to mean.

In claim 11, "any said claim" is indefinite as to what this refers to since the claim depends from claim 1 only.

In claim 17, "(100-200°)" is indefinite as to what this is to mean or represent.

Claim 18 provides for the use of a substituted thiourea, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1,2,7,8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over O'Doherty '380.

O'Doherty suggests the instantly claimed substituted thiourea in col. 2, lines 35-37 and col. 5, lines 5-6.

Claims 1,2,7,8,11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Martin '344.

Martin suggests the instantly claimed substituted thiourea and method of making same in example 2 and col. 7, last compound and col. 11, fifth and sixth compounds.

Claims 1,2,7,8,11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over CH 431491.

CH '491 suggests the instantly claimed substituted thiourea in example 1.

Claims 1,3,5,7,8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nakaya '412.

Nakaya suggests the instantly claimed substituted thiourea in col. 3, formula III.

Art Unit: 1754

Claims 1,3,6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DE 4016071.

DE '071 suggests the instantly claimed substituted thiourea in pg. 4, lines 30-41 and example 18.

Claims 4, 9,10,12-16 are objected as dependent on a rejected base claim.

The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.
